

5/15/17-7/14/17

MILLS SUMMER SESSION

Spread out your workload - Complete your degree requirements sooner
Fulfill Core Curriculum and Gen Ed Requirements
Limited housing available - Pay with a Mills loan

● Registration is March 6 - June 9, 2017:

● RESEARCH
SEMINAR IN CHILD DEVELOPMENT

Gain mentored research experience on critical issues in children's development.
Priya Shimpi, EDUC 180AS/280AS
Summer Session: I

● HIDDEN GEMS IN LITERATURE AND BEYOND : IDEOLOGY, POWER, AND FOOD

How do hidden gems – lovely yet less well known short works -- reveal the mechanics of ideology and power? To better understand metaphors of consumption, the instructor will provide snacks that resonate with the texts, and we will strengthen analytical thinking and academic writing skills.
Vivian Chin, LET 180AS

Summer Session: III

● CREATIVE WRITING BOOTCAMP

This class is designed to help writers of all genres produce new work, with collective feedback and support — not just to pump out pages but to push our writing in new directions!

David Buuck, ENG 180AS
Summer Session: III

● PHILOSOPHY OF LAW

A critical introduction to the philosophical analysis of legal concepts and related issues in political theory and applied ethics. Marc Joseph, Phil 125
Session: III

● CHEMISTRY OF COOKING

Learn how basic chemical principles underlie everyday aspects of food and cooking. Cooking is Chemistry where you get to eat the results!

Don Crampton, CHEM 011,
Session: III

More information and to register:
https://www.mills.edu/academics/summer_seminars/summer-session.php

Questions? Contact provost@mills.edu